We have 27 games with Norfolk, 14 at home and 13 in Norfolk. Portsmouth plays the Fourth of July and Labor Day with Norfolk, two games each day, both morning games being played in Portsmouth, and the afternoon games in Norfolk.

Norfolk has named McClelland out to Durham, in the North Carolina League. Thornton and Clinton, Portsmouth's new men, have reported. Both are in fine condition and ready for hard work.

An Invitation to Gordon—(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Chicago, June 15.—Commander-in-Chief Shaw, representing veterans of the Civil War in the G. A. R., sent a personal invitation to Major-General John B. Gordon, representing the United Confederate Veterans, to come to Chicago next August as a special guest of the thirty-fourth national encampment.

Owner Brady will have to study hard to find an opening for these men, however, as every man on the present team is playing championship ball.

MONUMENTAL PICNIC.

The Monumental Sunday school will give their annual picnic Wednesday, June 20th, at Virginia Beach. Those who have attended this school's picnics need no persuasion to attend this time. They are always the most enjoyable excursions of the season. This year's excursion to Virginia Beach will not be behind the others. The picnic train will leave Berkley at 8 o'clock a. m., returning will arrive at Berkley at 7:30 p. m. Those wishing to go down on the picnic train will take the 7:35 ferry boat.

A RARE TREAT.

Those who attend services at the First Presbyterian Church this morning will be delighted at the rendition of "Hosanna," "O Lord, Be Merciful," and "Hallelujah," by Mrs. Jennie Garner Stewart, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Stewart is soprano soloist at the Emmanuel Episcopal Church of Baltimore, and is to-day one of the sweetest and most prominent singers in this country.

GLASS CAUSES BAD CUT.

Tillerman Edward Broughton, of the Hook and Ladder Company, narrowly missed losing his left thumb yesterday as the result of an accident while cleaning a lantern globe. The glass broke and a razor edge entered the joint of his thumb, almost severing it from his hand. The wound was attended to by Dr. A. A. Bilsby, who found it necessary to take several stitches in closing the cut.

A CHILD'S FUNERAL.

The body of Emma Lannon, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O. Culpepper, was brought from Newport News last evening for burial, and this afternoon at 5 o'clock the funeral exercises will be held from the residence of Mrs. Emma J. Woodward, the child's grandmother, at No. 611 Dinwiddie street. The child died yesterday at 12:20 o'clock at the parents' home in Newport News, at the age of 1 year and 10 months.

A STORE KEEPER ASSAULTED.

Friday night a negro man went into a store kept by T. C. Sykes at Shouder's Hill and made an assault on Mr. Charles M. Bunting, the proprietor. Mr. Bunting was at first stunned by the blow, but soon recovered himself, and gave the negro a decent thrashing. He then telephoned to Mr. Sykes in this city, and that gentleman sent Officers Evan Thompson and Hughton out there, but the man had disappeared.

THE HUSTINGS COURT.

In the Hustings Court yesterday Judge Watts confirmed the sale of the Taylor property, consisting of real estate property near the Seaboard Air Line shops, and several farms near Gelly's Station. The property was sold about two weeks ago.

At Norfolk—June 15th, 21st, 26th; July 4th (evening), 12th, 19th, 27th; August 3d, 10th, 15th, 24th, 30th; September 3d (evening). Thirteen games.
